

Your Financial Future:

How Will You Pay For Long-Term Illness Care?

Chronic illness riders for life insurance, Policies issued by: American General Life Insurance Company, a member of American International Group, Inc. (AIG), can help minimize unexpected financial strain due to a chronic illness by providing access to funds while LIVING.

WILL IT HAPPEN TO YOU?

7 in 10 people

turning 65 will need long-term care at some point in their lives.¹

The number of Americans who need long-term care will more than double² by 2050

9 in 10 people

who go on long-term care claims do not recover. Only 10% of the market will have a non-permanent condition.³

WHERE WILL CARE COME FROM?

3 out of 4 people who need long-term care live in private homes where about 70% of the care is provided by family and friends.⁴

Nearly two thirds of family caregivers are female (60%)⁶

By 2030 the number of available family and friend caregivers will be half what it was in 2010.

This coincides with the time in which baby boomers will be in the high risk years of life⁵
